Answers to Questions About Private Investigators

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND CONSUMER SERVICES
Division of Licensing

Adam H. Putnam
Commissioner

The Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, Division of Licensing, licenses and regulates the private investigative industry in accordance with Chapter 493, Florida Statutes. Private investigators and private investigative agencies serve in positions of trust. Untrained and unlicensed persons or businesses, or persons not of good moral character, are a threat to the public’s safety and welfare. The private investigative industry is regulated to ensure the interests of the public are adequately served and protected. The purpose of this pamphlet is to inform Florida citizens about licensing requirements.

What is A Private Investigator?

To perform private investigations in Florida, an individual must hold a Class "C" Private Investigator license or a Class "CC" Private Investigator Intern license. A Class "C" or "CC" licensee must own or work for a licensed Class "A" Private Investigative Agency. A Class "CC" licensee must work under the direction and control of a designated, sponsoring Class "C" licensee. "Private investigation" means the investigation by a person or persons for the purpose of obtaining information with reference to any of the following matters:

- Crime or wrongs done or threatened against the United States or any state or territory of the United States, when operating under express written authority of the governmental official responsible for authorizing such investigation.
- The identity, habits, conduct, movements, whereabouts, affiliations, associations, transactions, reputation, or character of any society, person, or group of persons.
- The credibility of witnesses or other persons.
- The whereabouts of missing persons, owners of unclaimed property or escheated property, or heirs to estates.

- The location or recovery of lost or stolen property.
- The causes and origin of, or responsibility for, fires, libels, slanders, losses, accidents, damage, or injuries to real or personal property.
- The business of securing evidence to be used before investigating committees or boards of award or arbitration or in the trial of civil or criminal cases and the preparation therefor.

Types of Licenses

For Individuals

- “C” – Private Investigator
- “CC” – Private Investigator Intern
- “M” or “MA” – Manager of a Private Investigative Agency

For Agencies

- “A” – Private Investigative Agency
- “AA” – Private Investigative Agency Branch Office

Who is Exempt From Licensure?

- Any insurance investigator or adjuster licensed by a state or federal licensing authority when such person is providing services or expert advice within the scope of her or his license.
- Any individual solely, exclusively, and regularly employed as an unarmed investigator in connection with the business of her or his employer, when there exists an employer-employee relationship.
- Any person or bureau whose business is exclusively the furnishing of information concerning the business and financial standing and credit responsibility of persons or the financial habits and financial responsibility of applicants for insurance, indemnity bonds, or commercial credit.

- Any attorney in the regular practice of her or his profession.
- Any bank or bank holding company, credit union, or small loan company operating pursuant to Chapters 516 and 520; any consumer credit reporting agency regulated under 15 U.S.C. ss. 1681 et seq.; or any collection agency not engaged in repossessions or to any permanent employee thereof.
- Any person who holds a professional license under the laws of this state when such person is providing services or expert advice in the profession or occupation in which that person is so licensed.
- Any private investigative agency, and employees thereof, performing contractual investigative services solely and exclusively for any agency of the United States.
- Any person duly authorized by the laws of this state to operate a central burglar or fire alarm business. However, such persons are not exempt to the extent they perform services requiring licensure or registration under this chapter.
- Any person or company retained by a food service establishment to independently evaluate the food service establishment including quality of food, service, and facility. However, such persons are not exempt to the extent they investigate or are retained to investigate criminal or suspected criminal behavior on the part of the food service establishment employees.
- Any person or firm that solely and exclusively conducts genealogical research, or otherwise traces lineage or ancestry, by primarily utilizing public records and historical information and databases.
- Any licensed Florida-certified public accountant who is acting within the scope of the practice of public accounting as defined in Chapter 473.

Firearms

A private investigator or private investigator intern, age 21 years or older, who possesses a Class “G” Statewide Firearm License, may carry a concealed firearm when it is required by his or her duties and approved by the licensed agency. Firearms are not permitted to be carried openly at any time.

When the application is received, the Florida Department of Law Enforcement and Federal Bureau of Investigation perform a criminal history check to determine if the applicant has a criminal history, which will disqualify him or her from licensure.

Any person applying for a license must:

- Be at least 18 years of age
- Be a citizen of the United States or a legal resident of the United States or have been granted authority to work by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service
- Have no disqualifying criminal history
- Be of good moral character
- Have no disqualifying history of mental illness or alcohol or controlled substance abuse

The applicant must provide the following:

- Name
- Date of birth
- Place of birth
- Residence addresses for the past five years
- Occupations for the past five years
- Statement of all criminal convictions
- Statement whether he or she has been adjudicated incompetent or committed to a mental institution
- Statement regarding any history of alcohol or controlled substance abuse
- One Passport type color photograph
- Full set of prints on the Division’s Fingerprint card
- Personal inquiry waiver
- Appropriate fees
- An applicant for a Class “C” license must submit an Affidavit/statement of qualifying experience or training and must pass an examination covering the provisions of Chapter 493, F. S.
- Effective 09/01/08, an applicant for a Class “CC” license must complete a 40-hour course in general investigative techniques and Chapter 493, F. S.

Violations

The Department has the power to enforce the provisions of Chapter 493, F.S. and initiate administrative action when violations occur. Private investigators may be subject to disciplinary action for fraud, deceit, negligence, incompetency, or misconduct in the practice of regulated activities.

The following are examples of violations, which are prohibited by law and may result in administrative action such as a fine, probation, revocation or suspension of license.
